RACING SPORTS

GENERAL SPORTING NEWS ON PAGE 8.

"Circulation Books Open to All."

NEW YORK, TUESDAY, OCTOBER 21, 1902.

HARRY CORNISH UNDER THE FIRE OF

COOTO, NIGHT

"Circulation Books Open to All."

PRICE ONE CENT.

PRICE ONE CENT.

CASE TO END

Such Progress Made To-Day Under Jus- TIP GALLANT FIRST AGAIN. tice Lambert's Method that Many Per- Mr. Holland Brings Crack Casons Believe Finish Is in Sight.

CORNISH'S ORDEALENDS

Prisoner's Foe Completes His Testimony After Counsel Had Wrested from Him Many Secrets of His Life - Nervous Cross-Examina-Under

When the trial of Roland B. Molineu:

at on the stand. Harry Cornish, the he ordeal of cross-examination.

econd battle of Molineux for his life.

Ex-Gov. Black, chief counsel for the risoner, got his first setback this afteroon. Dr. Coffin was on the stand, and vas asked by Assistant District-Attorlack, who wished to shut out the evi-

"Let him answer," said Justice Lamwas told to the jury about this poison and how it is made.

Harry J. King, who was on the witness stand when the noon recess was taken, resumed his place this afternoon. There was another big crowd present and great disappointment over the absence of the prisoner's wife.

King on the Stand. The examination of King lasted only a few minutes. His testimony was un-important. Mr. Black did not desire to cross-examine King, and he was excused, with the understanding that he might be called again. Howard Adams, only son of Mrs. Kate Adams, gave unimportant testimony, and Henry H. Wotherspoon, member of the Knickerbocker Athletic Club, and a champion swimmer, was called., He identified the bottle and the bottle-

George A. Salmon, an athletic instructor, testified that he was in Cornish's office when the poison package was received.

Patrick J. Finneran, assistant physical instructor at the Knickerbocker Athletic Club, said he saw the poison package received at the office of the athletic club. He suggested that the wrapper be saved. Mr. Black started to cross-ex-emine him on that point, but stopped when Finneran told him he knew nothing about poisons.

Dr. Louis A. Coffin testified that he had been called to attend Cornish after he was taken ill from the poison. Q. What did you give him? A. Strychnine and caffeine.

Court Lets the Proof.

"What is cyanide of mercury?" asked "I object." said ex-Gov. Black.

"I intend to show that cyanide of mercury is a very rare poison," Mr. "He may answer," said the Justice. Then the doctor told all about the

Mr. Osborne called John H. Yocum, Cornish's best friend. Cornish on the witness-stand said this moning there was no better chemist in the United States than Yocum. At present Yocum is employed by the United States Leather Company. Youum told how cyanide of mercury is made. Mr. Black began the cross-examination of the witness in a mild tone. Then

(Continued on Twelfth Page.)

SCHENECTADY, N. Y., Oct. 21.-The snow of the season fell this morning. The flurry was heavy and the air was full of the flakes. A rain fall suc-

Brook Selling Handicap.

nadian Jumper Home First in Corinthian Steeplechase for Gentlemen Jockeys.

THE WINNERS.

SECOND RACE-Tip Gallant 1, Hark Forward 2, Adjidaumo 3.

THIRD RACE-Plater 1, Cinque

FIFTH RACE-Huntressa 1, Cam

SIXTH RACE-Vincennes 1, Essene

MORRIS PARK RACE TRACK, Oct 21.-The Silver Brook and the Dixiana Westchester this afternoon.

youngsters, while in the Dixiana States Trimble were the original entries, and the addition of Col. Bill to carry 120 pounds made the stake much more in form, and it is probable that the stewmore than usual keenness this after-

Steeplechase; short course.

Starters, Jocks., whts. St.Hif.Fin. Str.Place.
Tip Gallant, 149, Mr. Holland 5 1a 12½ 8-5 3-5
Hark For'rd, 154, Mr. Harris 1 5 2° 13-10 2-5
Adjidaumo, 153, Mr. Paget 4 2½ 3° 5 5-5
Cock Robin, 155, Mr. Hayes 2 3° 4° 13-10 2-5
R.B. Sack, 147, Mr. Hol' way 3 4° 5 12 2-6
Coupled. Start good. Won easily. Time—
4.394

The Dixiana Stakes; one mile.

Starters, jocks., whts. St. Hif. Fin. Str. Place.
Oom Paul. 112, J. Martin. 2 1¹¹41² 8
Rockwater, 110, Odom... 5 3¹¹42³ 8-5 1-2
South Trimble, 118, Lyne. 1 5 3³ 20 6
Lighter, 120, O'Connor... 2 4³ 4² 9-2 7-5
Col. Bill, 120, Rice... 4 2⁵ 5 5-2 4-5
Strit good Won easily. Time—1.414.

Oom Paul went to the front at the start, made all the running and won

(Continued on Eighth Page.)

WEATHER FORECAST.

STAKE RACE.

The Evening World's Selections Finish First and Second in the Silver

FIRST RACE-Ascension 1, Ber

FOURTH RACE-Oom Paul 1, Rockwater 2, South Trimble 3.

ron 2, Caughnawaga 3.

The Silver Brook had a good class o

FIRST RACE.

Pittsburg Phil played the win-

Adjidaumo was the early pace-maker but gave way to Top Gallant, who raced head and head with Cock Robin to the top of the hill. Then Top Gallant cut loose and won easily by three lengths from Hark Forward, who came on and beat Adjaumo six lengths for the place.

THIRD RACE.

Silver Brook Stakes; five and a half furlougs on Eclipse course.

Starters, jocks., whts. St. Hif. Fin. Str. Place.
Plater, 107. H. Michaels. 2 12 12 9-10 2-5
Cinquevalli, 107. Lyne. 6 22 25 11-5 1-2
Wax Candle, 102. J. Martin 5 3 31 12 4
Ring Dove, 97. Force. 3 44 41 15 5
Examiner, 105. Minder. 1 55 51 80 15
Capitvator, 101. Rice. 4 61 65 20 7
Mount Hope, 102. Redfern, 7 7 60 12
Start good. Won easily. Time—1.02½.

There was practically nothing to the race. The favorite Plater simply rumped all the way, winning as he reased by two lengths. Cinquevalli was second all the way and beat Wax Candle five lengths for the place.

The Dixiana Stakes; one mile.

Forecast for the thirty-six hours ending at S P. M. Wednesday for New York City and vicinity: Fair to-night and Wednesday; warmer Wednesdays; fresh northwest to north Against Prohibition Lawyer and Politician in Justice Bischoff's Court.

"MAKING ARRANGEMENTS." SECOND LARGEST IN STATE.

tempted to use the process of the court to aid him in obtaining a seat on the Supreme Court bench. ,The Justice's information was contained in affidavits submitted to him by Henry B. Coman. Deputy Attorney-General and nominee for Attorney-General, on the Republican ticket, and Charles C. Van Kirk, a lawyer of Alb.thy ..

Mr Coman said in the affidavit that sage from Hart, in which he called his attention to an application filed with the Attorney-General by him for a writ of quo warranto to determine his preme Court bench of Brooklyna now to Mr. Coman that a committee of the Prohibition party was to meet that night to select a name for Attorney-General (Mr. Coman had already been nominated for that office by the Republicans), and before the committee met he wanted to know what action was going to be taken on his application contesting Justice Goodrich's right to his seat on the bench.

Mr. Coman told him that his application had not been properly drawn. Hart, according to Mr. Coman's affidavit, said he must know at once what action the Attorney-General was going to take.

"Mr. Hart then asked me if I had no further suggestion to make. I repeated that I had none and the conversation ended."

Another affidavit, was supmitted by to Mr. Coman that a committee of the ended."

Another affidavit was submitted by Charles C. Van Kirk, a lawyer, of Albany. He says Hart told him he was entitled to a seat on the Supreme Court bench to which he had been elected on the Prohibition ticket about five years

He continues that Hart told him dur-He continues that Hart told him during the postponement of the motion last Saturday that the majority of the Prohibition party did not want Cunneen on the ticket and that he could see that the motion would be withdrawn if a "satisfactory arrangement" could be made. He said, according to Van Kirk, that if his application to contest Justice Goodwith's seat would be heard and Justice Goodwith's would not oppose it, the motion to continue Cunneen on the Prohibition ticket would be withdrawn.

Hart also filed an affidavit making a denial of the accusations.

Annihilates Time. Pennsylvania Special leaving New York at 1.56 P. M., arriving Chicago 8.55 A. M., ers the man of affairs with practically no f business time. *2.00

AWARD $38,500

Made Mrs. Minerva Slutz Gets Big Verdict for Death of Her Husband in the Park Avenue

TUNNEL AWARDS TO DATE, $194,000. DEATH CLAIMS. Henry G. Dimon.....$60,000 A. E. Slutz..... 38,500 W. E. Howard..... 17,500 Mrs. W. E. Howard..... 15,000

FOR INJURIES. T. E. Murphy.....$18,500 Miss Lamden..... 15,000 Small suits compromised.. 30,000 Total$194,000

(Special to The Evening World.) WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., Oct. 21 .- The jury in the suit of Mrs. Minerva Slutz, of New Rochelle, who entered a claim for $100,000 for the death of her husband, who was one of the Park avenue tuncel victims, brought in a verdict today for $38,500. Mrs. Slutz has two pretty children, a boy and a girl, nine and ten years old respectively, and they were both present in court at the time of the trial and won the sympathy of the

The widow, who is young and pretty, was dressed in deep mourning, and wept continuously while the tostimony was given. It was proven that Mr. Slutz was earning $40 a week at the time he met The New York Central Railroad had tried in vain to settle the case when it was brought for a comparatively small amount, and when the verdict was announced to-day the lawyers for the railroad immediately moved to set it aside on the ground that it was excessive and contrary to the evidence.

Justice Garretson will hear argumen on next Friday.

This is the second largest werdle ever rendered in this State for the loss of life in a railroad accident. of life in a railroad accident.

In the case of Henry G. Dimon, who was drawing a salary of $5,000 a year and who was instantly killed in the Park avenue crash, the jury gave his widow a judgment of $60,000. The company appealed and the verdict was affirmed.

Now the railroad has taken the case to the Court of Appeals, with a view trying to have the judgment cut down, Closing stock quotations are displayed daily on the Pennsylvania Special, 20-hour train to Chicago.

WISE PARROT KNOWS MISTRESS.

Magistrate Zeller, Solomon-Like, Solved the Case.

sterJam avenue.

She demanded it. Mrs. Farrara said she had paid a man $20 for it and wouldn't give it up. The two women and the parrot was therefore in the Harlem Court this afternoon. Magistrate Zeller put the parrot between them.

"Now, prove your claims," he said.
"Scratch your head, Polly," cooled Mrs. Florence.

Florence.
Polly scratched her head.
"Say Mamma," ordered Mrs. Florence.
"Mamma," screeched the parrot, and then it began chattering with the Florence children.
When Mrs. Farrara tried to give an exhibition the parrot climbed onto Mrs. Florence's shoulder, and Magistrate Zeller awarded the bird to her.

Father of David E. Austen, Receiver of Taxes.

at One Hundred and Eighty-sixth street filed in the Surrogate's office to-day, is and Amsterdam avenue. Yesterday she a remarkably strange testament. The

A. Smith; my Damascus sword to Alice Wheelock, and to my son. George Auskeep up the price of coal.

paragraph: "Anything not named here will have a name attached." A separate piece of agreed upon at the conference. paper pinned to the will says: "I give my rosewood writing deak t Isabelle, wife of my son, George Austen.

NO MENTION OF MONEY IN HIS WILL

Two Women Claimed Pet, but Peculiar Testament Left by ten, two flower stands, five engravings and two liquor bottles.'

CAPT. DELANEY STARTS IN TEARS ON VACATION; MAY QUIT FORCE.

Police Capt. John J. Delaney, commander at the East Thirty fifth street station, went on a twenty days' leave this afternoon. It was his annual vacation, but may mark the close of his career in the Police Department. The captain cleaned up his desk, shook hands with all his men and left the station-house with Recently charges were preferred against Capt. Delancy in connection with District-Attorney Jerome's raid on an an allege pool-room in the Sherman Hotel.

"I have been on the force thirty years and have never done a dishonorable act," the Captain said as he left the station. house. "I feel that my term of service is drawing to an end and I don't believe I will ever take command again."

DOCTOR'S AUTOMOBILE EXPLODES.

521 Madison avenue, exploded late this afternoon and took fire opposite No. 155 East Forty-fifth street, where he was calling, The physician turned in an alarm and firemen extinguished the flames. It was damaged to the extent of $1,000.

LATE RESULTS AT WORTH. Fourth Race-Pronta 1, Balm of Gilead 2, Joubert 3. Fifth Race—Constellator 1, Silver Fizz 2, Bummer 3. Sixth Rare-Wing Dance 1, Western Duke 2, Gold Age 3.

ATST. LOUIS. Fourth Race—Brutal 1, Sambo 2, Found 3.
Fifth Race—Frank Bell 1, Henry McDaniel 2, Mabel Winn 3.

EX-GOV. BLACK'S CROSS-EXAMINATION. PRESIDENT CALLS STRIKE COMMISSION TO MEET ON FRIDAY

President Follows the Action of the Miners Convention, Declaring Mine Trouble at an End, with Summons to the Arbitrators to Go to Washington and Begin Their Investigation.

Within an Hour After the Decision at Wilkesbarre Some of the Miners Had Resumed Work---Coal Operators Rejoice Over Settlement and Prepare to Force Down the Price of Coal.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.-The communication to President Roosevelt, adopted by the Wilkesbarre convention to-day reached the President this

President Roosevelt soon afterwards directed that the members of the Arbitration Commission be summoned to meet here on Friday and the tol-

'Mr. John Mitchell, Chairman of Convention, Wilkesbarre, Pa. "Upon receipt of your telegram of this date the President summoned the Commission to meet here on Friday, the 24th inst., at 10 A. M.

OPERATORS PREPARING TO RUSH COAL INTO NEW YORK.

Immediately upon receipt of the news of the ending of the coal strike "Household furniture, books, pictures, the operators, in regular meeting in this city, took measures to-day to bed and table linen and china to Hattle protect the public against the plans of the retailers and speculators to

The nature of the plans of the operators are not made public, but it is Then comes the following inexplicable known that any dealer, seeking to secure more than a reasonable price for coal after the supply begins to reach the city will be disciplined in a way

> The operators are straining every point to be ready to rush the newly, mined coal into the city.

HOW OPERATORS HEARD THE NEWS.

The first information that the miners had agreed to accept the proposition offered them by President Roosevelt was conveyed to the coal operators by The Evening World. The operators expressed themselves as follows: PRESIDENT BAER: "So soon?"

"That is strange," remarked Mr. Baer. "Our latest advices are that a resolution has been introduced and there is likely to be a long debate

"The word has just reached The Evening World office," replied the

Mr. Baer was assured that the resolution had passed.

"What was the vote?" he asked, eagerly.

"Unanimous," responded the reporter.

"Was the roll called?" queried Mr. Baer. "No, sir," the reporter said, "it was a viva voce vote. There was ten minutes of cheering before the Chairman could make himself heard in angouncing the result." "I am very glad to hear it," said Mr. Baer, "very glad indeed."

WILL RUSH COAL HERE.

PRESIDENT TRUESDALE, of the Lackawanna-I am delighted to hear the news. Coal will now be rushed to market on the jump. I anticipate that the first coal, freshly mined, will be here by the last of this PRESIDENT FOWLER, of the Ontario and Western-I expected this result. Work will be pushed to supply coal to the people.

The gasoline automobile own by Dr. Fred. K. Hollister, of No. PRESIDENT OLYPHANT, of the Delaware and Hudson-It is hardly necessary to say that I am pleased. There is no reason why we should not all be pleased. I trust that coal will be in New York in considerable quantities by the end of this week. If it does not I shall be surprised. All of the available rolling stock of our railread has been sent to the anthracite fields within the last six days, and everything along the line will give way to coal.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS, of the Erie Board-I am more than pleased at the JOHN MARKLE, the independent operator, was asked if he would allow work to be resumed at his mine if the miners applied for their old places. He refused to answer the question, Mr. Markie had just ar-